CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Small Grants Program for Thailand's South of the U.S. Embassy is accepting applications for grants from Thai non-governmental organization (NGOs), Voluntary Private Organizations (VPOs), and other non-profit organizations. The purpose of the Small Grants Program for Thailand's South is to award small grants for no more than USD $10,000 for projects with the purpose of supporting consensus building, conflict mitigation, and/or peaceful conflict resolution in the four southernmost provinces of Thailand (Narathiwat, Yala, Pattani and Songkhla). The deadline for submitting proposals is February 28, 2011.

To be eligible for consideration, every applicant must be engaged in, or propose to carry out, a project whose purpose is to support:

- Development of civil society, including civic education and engagement, and youth leadership
- Enhancing economic opportunity for vulnerable groups, especially youth
- Mitigation of the impact of the conflict in Thailand's South
- Conflict resolution

The program will NOT fund projects for the following:

- individuals and non-Thai organizations,
- projects relating to partisan political activity,
- projects benefiting organizations that are party to or materially supportive of the insurgency in Thailand's South, and
- duplication of existing projects.

The funds may NOT be used to support general operating expenses, long-term infrastructure costs, undefined miscellaneous or “overhead” expenses, and food as primary costs. It may include modest administrative expenses, including honoraria/partial salaries of grant implementers, but only when they are directly linked to the conduct of the specific grant program. Proposals will be evaluated according to the topic of the project, clearly formulated goals and target groups, and the ability of the applying individuals and organizations to implement the project.

Each project proposal MUST be submitted in English and suggested information to be included in project proposals is below. We strongly encourage applicants to submit proposals early to allow adjustments as needed. Please submit proposals by e-mail to: bangkokpd@state.gov, with the words “Proposal for Thailand’s South” in the subject line. For more information, please contact the Cultural Affairs Office at tel. 0-2205-4625, or e-mail bangkokpd@state.gov.
